Curriculum Framework

English Curriculum Framework

Intent

The Futura Learning Partnership intent for English is that a high-quality education will inspire children to become creative and critical thinkers. We believe that it is the right of every child to become a competent and confident user of the English language; able to live, work and succeed in the literate world. Children will be able to communicate fluently and confidently, using a wide vocabulary accurately and effectively. They will be able to critique a range of fiction and non-fiction texts, appreciating a rich and varied literary heritage. Children will be inspired to become imaginative writers who can write coherently with a high level of accuracy in spelling, punctuation and grammar; children will be able to adapt their language and style in and for a range of contexts, purposes and audiences. English provides the fundamental building blocks for students to succeed in all subjects; a high level of literacy provides the vehicle needed to unpick key concepts across the curriculum. This, alongside carefully selected texts appropriate to our contexts, develops the cultural capital needed to succeed in life. Crucially, we aim to foster a love of literature through widespread reading for enjoyment.

Inclusion: Our curriculum is ambitious for all and strives to address inclusion and disadvantage in its intent and implementation

Aims: Underpinning the intent are the following key substantive and disciplinary concepts:

1. The mechanics of writing
2. Reading fluently, accurately and for meaning
3. Using evidence
4. Critical analysis of texts
5. Making links and connections between and across texts
6. Adapting for audience and purpose

1. The mechanics of writing

Success is students being able to write accurately with no errors in spelling, punctuation and grammar. They should know, remember and understand ‘rules’ of spelling, punctuation and grammar so that they can apply them to their own writing. They should be able to accurately use sophisticated vocabulary, ambitious punctuation and varied grammatical structures, making deliberate choices to create an impact on the reader.

2. Reading fluently, accurately and for meaning

Success is being able to read age-appropriate texts fluently and independently. Students are able to understand most of the words that they encounter, and those that they do not understand can be decoded through strategies that they have been taught, such as using etymology and morphology to work out word families.

3. Using evidence

Success is students being able to identify within a text which evidence is most relevant and worthy of analysis, and to fluently recall a judicious range of evidence which reinforces their critical viewpoint. They should also embed this evidence to be a seamless part of their response.

They can use analytical adverbs and verbs when exploring critical ideas. They can reinforce original points with perceptive quotations.	All GCSE texts listed in Section 4. Critical analysis of texts for Years 10 and 11.
Years 12 and 13	Evaluate and make sophisticated judgements about a writer's choices. Analyse language, form and concepts. Make critical comments and interpretations. Explore the significance of GAP, context, language and form. Explore the possible influences on a writer or speaker including concepts and theory. Make confident interpretations . Explore representation through language.	Students continue to embed judicious quotations and references into their responses. Their knowledge of critical concepts is sophisticated, and they use these appropriately to enhance and develop their own evaluation of meanings. They understand the importance of differing interpretations and utilise critical ideas to build their own independent argument. In English Language they can use linguistic concepts and methods to evaluate a writer or speaker's language choices in differing modes and contexts.	Exam texts as listed in section 4. Examples of text types or spoken language data.

4. Critical analysis of texts

Success is students being able to analyse how a text has been shaped by a writer (through language and structural choices) to influence the reader, using appropriate subject terminology. It is the ability to understand why a writer has made choices, and how their work has been influenced by genre, context and their purpose. It is the analysis of themes presented by the writer, and understanding the impact that the writer has through presenting these themes.

The main themes that students need to be aware of in literature are:

- Love
- Conflict
- Power
- Identity

- Relationships
- Death
- Nature
- Religion

The key areas of social, cultural and historical context that students need to be aware of in literature are:

- Elizabethan – Patriarchal society, family honour, Elizabethan theatre and audience, tragedy, religion, colonialism
- Romanticism – revolution, rebellion, imagination, nature, religion
- Victorian – social class, bourgeoisie, poverty, Gothic genre, industrialisation, role of women, fallen women, fin de siècle
- WW1 and WW2
- Modern Britain – social class, poverty, political ideas, industrialisation, suffragettes, feminism, Marxism, southern Gothic
- Traditional/ folk tales taken from a range of cultures including nursery rhymes

5. Making links and connections between and across texts

Success is students being able to make perceptive comparisons between texts, recognising how two writers have used methods to convey different viewpoints and perspectives. They can clearly explain how different texts might have been influenced by a writer's context, genre or perspective. They can also make perceptive connections within a text, considering how an idea is presented within an extract and in the text as a whole. Their ideas are supported by a range of judicious quotations.
